

Opening sentences: Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob.

Prayer for Psalm 114:

Mighty God, by your power you led your people out of slavery in Egypt, and raised Christ from the dead. Deliver us continually by your power from slavery to freedom and from death to life, for the glory of Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Closing Prayer (from the Iona Abbey Worship Book):

O Christ, your cross speaks both to us and to our world. In your dying for us you accepted the pain and hurt of the whole of creation. The arms of your cross stretch out across the broken world in reconciliation.

You have made peace with us. Help us to make peace with you by sharing in your reconciling work. May we recognize your spirit disturbing and challenging us to care for creation and for the poor who most feel the effects of its abuse.

O Christ, the whole of creation groans. Set us free and make us whole. There is no pain in our hearts or in our planet that you do not know, for you have touched the lowest places on earth.

Teach us to grieve with you, O Christ, the loss of all beauty that is being killed. There is no place in the heavens that cannot be touched by your resurrection presence, for you fill all things.

Give us strength in your victory over death to grow into a new way of love, which does not despair but keeps sowing seeds of hope and making signs of wholeness.

And hear us as we pray as he taught us, saying, Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed by thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
