

Opening sentences: Let us praise you, O God. Let all the people praise the Lord!

Prayer for Psalm 67:

God of wisdom, through your power the earth has brought forth its noblest fruit, the tree of the cross. Unite all people in its embrace, and feed us with its fruit, everlasting life through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.
Amen.

Closing Prayer: Let us pray.

Eternal God,

by your word you commanded:

“Let there be light!”

By your Spirit you have revealed the light of your glory in the face of Jesus Christ. Shine in our hearts this day with the light of your good news and illumine our dreams with the vision of your holy realm. We praise you for your presence in our lives, and for all goodness that you shower upon us in Jesus Christ.

Especially we thank you for the communion of the Holy Spirit...time to savor the goodness of creation...the enjoyment of friends and family...the pleasure and wonder of living...all beauty that moves and delights us...

God of grace, through Jesus Christ we are one with all your children and we offer our prayers, spoken and unspoken, for all whom you love.

Especially we pray for independent, indigenous, and emerging churches...refugees and homeless men, women, and children...those who pass by their neighbors in need...those who offer a prophetic witness...your blessing on those we too often forget...

Lord, be our light when shadows are falling.

Lord, be our light when trouble is near.

Lord, be our light as we watch and wait for the dawning of your new creation; through Jesus Christ our Savior.

Hear us now as we pray the prayer he taught us, saying, Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
